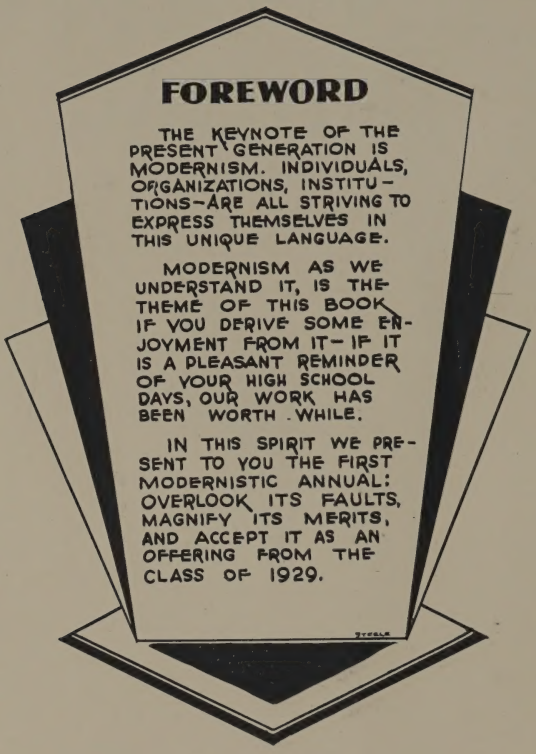
PENNANT ANNUAL

OF 1929

Published by the

SENIOR CLASS OF ELKHART HIGH SCHOOL

ELKHART, INDIANA



FOREWORD
THE KEYNOTE OF THE PRESENT GENERATION IS MODERNISM. INDIVIDUALS, ORGANIZATIONS, INSTITUTIONS—ARE ALL STRIVING TO EXPRESS THEMSELVES IN THIS UNIQUE LANGUAGE.
MODERNISM AS WE UNDERSTAND IT, IS THE THEME OF THIS BOOK. IF YOU DERIVE SOME ENJOYMENT FROM IT—IF IT IS A PLEASANT REMINDER OF YOUR HIGH SCHOOL DAYS, OUR WORK HAS BEEN WORTH WHILE.
IN THIS SPIRIT WE PRESENT TO YOU THE FIRST MODERNISTIC ANNUAL: OVERLOOK ITS FAULTS, MAGNIFY ITS MERITS, AND ACCEPT IT AS AN OFFERING FROM THE CLASS OF 1929.

DEDICATION TO
THOSE WHO HAVE PLANNED, TOILED AND SACRIFICED IN ORDER THAT THIS SCHOOL MIGHT BE POSSIBLE, AND TO THOSE WHO HAVE MADE OUR INSPIRATIONS REALITIES, WE GRATEFULLY DEDICATE THE ELKHART HIGH SCHOOL YEAR-BOOK OF 1929

The chief concern of men and women should be, that the coming generations shall have better conditions in which to develop to their full stature.

John W. Holdeman,
Principal
A.B., A.M.

Let us be mindful of little things, things that people in general overlook as trifles. Perfection and success are found in the degree to which we attend to trifles pertaining to some master problem.

January Class Poem

Far in the land of the future
Beside the twilight seas;
The golden sun was setting
Behind the Cypress trees.

I sat alone and dreaming
Beneath the sunset's glow,
Old visions danced before me
Of the days I used to know.

I saw the faces dear to me,
Friends of the long ago . . .
I saw the class of '29
In the light of the sunset's glow.

Spirit-like returning
I saw thee, standing still,
Oh, Castle of Knowledge
Atop the flaming hill.

And Spirit-like, you seemed to say,
"Was my teaching all in vain
Or have you tried to be a friend,
And have you learned to play the game?"

Yes, E. H. S. you have taught us
Courage, strength to do the right.
A code of honor tried and true
To help us win the fight.

January Class History

TODAY, when our Zeppelin, E. H. S. No. 1929, takes off, we are publishing the record of the four intensive years which were needed to build it These years had their mixture of hard work and play.

During the first year we were divided, half of us being at E. H. S. and half at Roosevelt Junior High, working on our designs for the airship.

At the beginning of the second year we combined our forces. On February 9, 1926, we held our first general meeting, electing the following officers: Captain, Max Ball; First Officer, Carroll Ball; Keeper of the Log, Walter Compton; Purser, Wayne Moyer; Quartermaster and Social Chairman, Margaret Oliver; Yell Leader, Grace Jones. Miss Kelly was selected for the position of Engineer. We decided to have a general election of officers at the beginning of each term. We planned to make final decisions on our plans the next term, leaving us more time for perfecting the details.

In accordance with our rules, another meeting was called October 8, 1926. We elected: Captain, Max Ball; First Officer, Ralph Johnson; Keeper of the Log, Grace Jones; Purser, Marian Lapham; Quartermaster, Rose Berlin.

Among the designs submitted was one for a party to be held November 19 in the gym. Cootie was played, our high officers, Max Ball and Miss King, showing their ability by winning the prizes. Guests included Miss King, Miss Kelly, Miss Estlick, Mr. Jones and Mr. Miller, who were the chaperones.

Since our officers had been considering the plans for some time, it was decided to submit the best ones to our fellow members at a meeting on February 31, 1927. One was chosen so that work could start immediately on the foundation. The following officers were selected: Captain, Max Ball; First Officer, Carroll Ball; Keeper of the Log and Purser, Grace Jones; Quartermaster, Anna Belle Wyatt.

Our Quartermaster decided that we were working hard enough to deserve a party, so she arranged a Saint Patrick's Party for us which was held March 18, in the gym.

It was also thought advisable for the members to take some form of outdoor exercise, so a weinie roast was planned for April 19, after the May Day Program, at the Boy Scout Cabin. We decided that this form of exercise was most enjoyable.

The foundation was coming along quite satisfactorily, when a small difficulty arose in the form of final examinations. This was overcome quite successfully by most of the members.

The time went fast and we again found it necessary to elect the following officers: Captain, Max Ball; First Officer, Willene Pancost; Keeper of the Log, Jean Work; Purser, Grace Jones; Quartermaster, AnnaBelle Wyatt. It was then decided that we needed some insignia to distinguish us from the rest of the people at E. H. S. A committee composed of Rose Berlin, Maurice Babcock, and Catharine Thomas was chosen to select rings and pins.

This time our Quartermaster decided that the kind of exercise needed was roller skating. A party was held at Blossers Park with the following chaperones: Miss Heck, Miss Dressel, Miss Kelly, Mr. Jones, Mr. Peterson, and Mr. Bracewell.

Christmas found us working hard for difficulties were coming. However, as Santa Claus rewards all good children, we had a party in December in which we dressed as "kids." Santa visited us, leaving presents for everyone. The children refreshed themselves with ice cream hearts.

By now we had the framework completed. A meeting was held in which plans were made to put on the covering of the ship. These officers were elected as follows: Captain, Max Ball; First Officer, Jean Work; Keeper of the Log, Willene Pancost, Purser, Esther Bandow; Quartermaster, Margaret Oliver.

To honor the graduating class, whose place we were soon to occupy, we decided to give them a Prom. Funds were raised by giving the play, "I'll Leave It to You," in collaboration with the IIB class. The Prom, given at Oakwood Tavern, Klinger Lake, was a tremendous success.

One of our members, Margaret Oliver, distinguished herself and brought fame to E. H. S. by winning the Northern Indiana Lincoln Memorial Contest.

Work was progressing rapidly and in the fall of 1928 we had only the finishing touches left. We selected these officers on September 21: Captain, Max Ball; First Officer, Willene Pancost; Keeper of the Log, Edward Neidballa; Purser, Leonard Huggins; Quartermaster, Grace Jones.

To work off some of our exuberant spirits we held a skating party October 10, at Blosser's Park. We had found this an excellent method of exercising. The chaperones were: Miss Kelly, Miss Heck, Miss Wilson, and Mr. Jones, Mr. Bracewell, and Mr. Bryngleson.

Plans for the take-off were rapidly being perfected. At a meeting held December 13, the following committees were appointed: Flower, Color, Senior Day entertainment; Senior Banquet committee.

We had a party with the IA's in Mr. Peterson's room around Thanksgiving time. This was a change from our ceaseless activity.

Senior Day entertainment was a great success. The Banquet was enjoyed by all who attended.

We appreciated the Prom given us by the Junior class; everyone had an enjoyable time.

Now, preparations are complete and we are waiting for the moment to come when we shall embark on our momentous journey, for which we have been working, hoping, and waiting.

Dorothy Zwolanek.

The Will of
The January Class of 1929

ON entering upon this hazardous cruise of the Zeppelin, January Class, 1929, for parts unknown, we, the below mentioned members of the graduating class of January, feel it our duty to bequeath to the under-classmen such of our belongings as may enable them to attain something of our advanced state of being:

Given in charge to our captain, Max Ball, as an eternal monument to our intelligence and generosity, this Umtieth day of Decary, Exteenwatey-ten.

I, Max Ball, do will my masculine beauty to be divided between Bob and James Bussard.

Carroll Ball leaveth his bottle of stacomb for the benefit of Marthas Kollat and Proseus.

Jean Work and Willy Pancost leave their romantic natures and ravishing souls to Tom Holt and Derwood Wood.

Ralph Stover and Trumy Yoder will one wad of used gum and three wads of paper to Virginia Adams.

AnnaBelle Wyatt leaves one bottle of smelly rubber cement and one sticky paint brush to the future Managing Editor of the Pennant Annual.

Bob Bowman leaves his pet herd of wild mushrooms as a source of amusement to Bob Stewart, now the school sheik.

T. J. Charlesworth abdicates and deserts his red sweater, to be worn as a muffler by Betty Emerson and Nick Leevre.

We, Russell Warren, Virgil Printy, and Francis Lamb, leave to the entire Sophomore class our ability to horse-laff.

Bob Cutler inflicts upon Tom Proctor the remains of a good Republican—dead if possible.

Esther Bandow and Grace Jones will to Wallene Derby and Hildred Chester an eternal pass to the North End Drug Store. To the Glee Club they leave a box of close harmony and three sour notes.

Keith Tyler wills his hair-cutting ability to the faculty, in order that they may be able to split hairs more closely, and with greater ease.

Benny Nichols leaves his well-known sense of humor to Mary Berkey, Georgia Brown and Bob Fribley.

Hubert Gander, Bill Hollar, and Runt Johnson bequeath their football tactics and their ways with the wimmin to Snicklefritz, the bassoon player, Bud Barger, and Howard Beuele.

Ed Neidballa leaves his all round ability to the thin people of the school in order that they may round out.

To Groll Beaver and Jean Herbster, I, Karl Steele, leave my ability to draw, and hope that they may draw mosquitoes all summer long.

Wilbur Mayhousen and Leonard Huggins will three healthy sneers and a grunt, to be put in a glass case and sent to Goshen.

Charley Hughes leaves to all blonde football players his discovery that ladies also prefer 'em light headed.

Wayne Moyer leaves his Dodge, and Charley Schmalzried leaves one curly hair, both of which shall be sent to Alaska to develop a sense of humor in the Eskimos.

Florence Lerner wills 1201 Free perpetual passes to the Lerner at all times to the Whole School.

Ralph Whitehead just got stepped on in the engine room and died intestate.

Dick Johnson and Francis Kelsey leave the soul of the Pennant Woodstock to Harriett Shriener, Buck Jones, Mid Good, and Miss Kelly, who is reported to be connected with the Pennant.

AND LAST, IF NOT LEAST

(A.) I, Maggie Q. Oliver, leave my personality in all its glory, and my presidential ability to the whole school, especially the Frosh, who will need it, the poor little dears.

(B.) Me, Royden Krueger Kelley, do will and bequeath to Gerald Rahn, as patron saint of all the sugar daddies in school, the knowledge of how to comb two counties in search of the right girl, and, better yet, to find her.

We, the members of the '29's, being more or less in our right minds and below twenty-one years of age, do acknowledge this to be our last will and testament, and so stick on it our seals. If any man have objections to this instrument, it's just too bad.

Signed, seeled, and execrated:

SENIORS OF 1929
Per: F. R. Lamb, Willist-in-Chief.

Extra! Extra!

THE Graf Bacon was swiftly soaring towards Northern Indiana! Aboard were the distinguished officers—Commanders Dash-Hound Hire and Mangler Ball, who were just returning from the Antarctic Regions in search of the lost Byrd Expedition which had set out fifteen years before. They had been successful in the attempt and were hailed as the heroes of the year, in line for Carnegie medals.

"Well, Hire, just think," said Mangler Ball, "fifteen years ago we were graduated from E. H. S. and today we are going back to see some of our old classmates."

"Oh, Look!" cried Dash-Hound Hire, "we are passing over Indianapolis. Let's stop a little while and get something to eat."

"O.K. with me," said Mangler Ball, so the giant ship "Graf Bacon" settled down to a mooring place. Officers Ball and Hire got off and started for an eating house.

"There's a decent looking joint," cried Hire as he pointed to a restaurant across the street with his swagger stick.

"It's alright with me," was Ball's answer. So they opened the door and chose a table near the back of the room. A waitress tripped up to their table. Order, please." While setting down some glasses of water she spilled some down Ball's neck. Furiously he turned around to bawl her out. He checked his words for there, a waitress, stood Anna Belle Wyatt. After greetings had been exchanged the talk quickly changed to old classmates and how they were getting along. The proprietor came rushing over, at the sound of the noise, and who should it be but Royden Kelly! "Why hello, boys," cried Kelley as he extended his hands to each one in turn.

"This sure is a lucky day for me," said Kelley. "Fifteen years ago today I married Jean Work, one year ago today I opened up this restaurant and today I met you fellows."

"Well, this is a very happy day for us," exclaimed Dash-Hound Hire.

"Say, Kelly, what became of the rest of our class of 1929?" asked Mangler Ball, very much excited at meeting his old friends.

"Well," said Kelley, "I'll tell you the whole history since you two left on your noble expedition."

"Just after I married Jean, Len Huggins and Ralph Johnson opened up a Beauty Parlor on Harrison Street. Maurice Babcock is dancing instructor in a New York Studio. Max Ball has a chain of Filling Stations in Elkhart and is soon to be wedded to Dot Carlson. Esther Bandow, Rose Berlin and LouAnna Dennert are primary teachers in Roosevelt School. Russell Hoshaw is a public accountant in Chicago; Charles Hughes and Francis Kelsey are traveling for the Miles Medical Company of which Edward Neidballa is President. Madam Oliver is in Russia studying music under Bullisky. Willene Pancost, who was graduated from the University of Chicago Commerce Dept. is in South America, as Private Secretary to the President of a large Commercial firm. Virgil Printy is on Broadway acting as Dan McGrew in Charles Schmalzried's latest hit, "Glondike or Bust." Karl Steele is in Rome painting pictures of the Coliseum. Francis Lamb is Mayor, Chief of Police, Fire Chief and Banker in Jamestown, Indiana. Phyllis Helfrick broadcasts violin solos every other night over Station WOOF. And I believe that Grace Jones and Beulah Heaton are working in a New York Central office. Well, that's about all I remember," said Kelly as he filled another glass of water.

"We surely can be proud because our class is represented in all fields of works," exclaimed Mangler Ball.

"Well, Kelly, I guess we had better finish our supper and get back to the ship as we wish to make Elkhart in about two hours," said Dash-Hound.

The two officers finished their supper and after bidding farewell to their friends they closed the door of the restaurant behind them.

"Well," said Mangler Ball, "I am sure glad that we ate supper in Indianapolis."

"Me, too," answered Dash-Hound Hire, "I'll never forget it."

THUS ENDS THE LOG TAKEN FROM THE LOG BOOK OF THE ZEPPELIN GRAF BACON AS IT CAME BACK FROM THE ANTARTIC—

Per: Dash-Hound Hire and Mangler Ball.

June Class Poem

Our goal in sight
We pause to look behind us
Along the road we came.

Earnestly we toiled along this way,
For in these years of effort we had dreamed
Only of one thing passionately
Till it seemed
That every thought within us must belong
Only to this. . . . that some day we would come
To where the road's end met the sky of blue.

It seemed the end.
But now that we have reached the hilltop and
Stand, victorious . . . conquering . . . alive
To the great world that lies about our feet,
We find that it is not the end, but a beginning. . .
A place where all roads meet.

Where each must take his own road. . .
Smooth, straight, or rough,
And each will make one goal his own.

But, though we are but of the stuff
That dreams are made of,
We have it in us to go on
These solitary paths
Until we reach the greatest goal of all. . .
Success and Happiness!

June Class History

IN SEPTEMBER, 1926, the June Class of 1929 made plans for a long bicycle race (eight laps), the greatest feat ever attempted in Elkhart, to be held at E. H. S. After much preparation the race started in September, 1927.

Entry blanks were filled out and turned over to Richard Johnson by members of the class. Entry fees were paid to Elizabeth Young who had been elected to this office. Mr. Baker was chosen Judge. At the end of the first lap Joe Shriver was leading, with Russel Warren as a close second. At this time rest period was called by Betty LaGro, social chairman, and the racers enjoyed a Halloween party at the Boy Scout cabin Oct. 22.

Refreshed, the racers started on the second lap with Richard Johnson again in charge of entry blanks, and entry fees being paid to Dorothy Markel. At the end of the second lap it was found that Elizabeth Young was in the lead with T. J. Charlesworth riding second. Social activities in charge of Robert Dewey during the second rest period were in the form of a party in the E. H. S. gym, April 29.

The climax was reached during the third lap and was held throughout the remainder of the race. At this time Mr. Baker resigned from his position as Judge and Mr. Jones was elected to take his place. Dorothy Markel still had charge of entry fees but entrance blanks were turned over to Lawrence Wilson.

A few blowouts occurred, so a dance with Mary Jane Drake in charge, was given Oct. 28, in the E. H. S. gym. So great was the tensity of the race at this period that an extra rest period was called in the form of a joint skating party with the January Class of '29 at Blossor's Park.

On Oct. 29 a souvenir vendor appeared and a committee composed of Alice Jane Cauffman, Bertha Funkhouser, and Bob Dewey were excused from the race to help the committee from the January Class of '29 select souvenir rings and pins. At the end of the third lap Elizabeth Young was still leading with Russell Warren riding second. During this rest period, recreation, consisting of a joint Christmas-Kid party with the January Class of '29 was held in the E. H. S. gym, Dec. 23.

On the fourth lap Dorothy Markel took charge of entry blanks and Lawrence Wilson was in charge of fees. Russell Warren had gained the lead with T. J. Charlesworth riding second. Elizabeth Young was elected social chairman, but owing to the fact that repairs had to be made on the bicycles no parties were held. The class raised funds by presenting the Junior Class Play, "I'll Leave It To You." The returns from the play were used to entertain the Senior classes in the form of a Prom held at Klinger Lake.

Entering the home stretch in the fifth lap Alice Jane Cauffman was in the lead with Russell Warren as second. Dorothy Markel was in charge of entry blanks and Elizabeth Young was in charge of the fees. Two rest periods were taken in this lap.

The first was in October, and was a joint skating party with the January Class of '29, at Blossor's Park. The second, also a joint party with the January Class, was held in Mr. Peterson's room. Virginia Mathias and the social committee from the January Class were in charge of both rest periods. A committee was appointed to select announcements which told of the termination of the race.

On the home stretch Russell Warren was in the lead with Alice Jane Cauffman second. Dorothy Markel held the entry blanks and Ralph Stover had charge of the fees. Near the end of the race the racers enjoyed the traditional "Senior Banquet." In the late spring the racers were entertained by the Juniors at the annual Prom, where a wonderful time was enjoyed by all.

And so the great four-year race is ended with the awarding of certificates to the members of the June Class of '29, which recommended them as licensed cyclists.

Bulletin!

THE LEADER in the great cross-country bicycle race, who plunged over Commencement road precipice last evening when he arrived in this city several hours ahead of schedule, did not recover consciousness, but died in the Auditorium hospital last night. The only clue to his identity was the following document:

We, the June class of 1929, in view of the risk involved in this cross country race in which we are about to enter, do hereby make our last will and testaments. We appoint as executor of this instrument our guardian, Wilbur A. Jones.

To the Juniors we leave our rights as Seniors, and a wonderful feeling of importance.

To the Sophomores we leave our Physics note books, with illustrations.

To the Freshmen we leave several well-trained Latin Ponies plus bridles and bits. Use discretion in riding.

Ralph Stover leaves his dignity to Ruth Schmidt!

Martha Jolliff leaves several extra inches of height to Red Stametz, who may or may not need it!

Thane McDonald leaves a good part in the Operetta to any underclassman who is worthy, and who has patience to rehearse.

Alice Jane Cauffman leaves her desk in the Pennant Office to Harriet Shriener.

Dick Johnson leaves his ability to get into things to Tommy Proctor.

Karl Steele leaves various and sundry paint brushes to Shirley Leonard, in hopes that she may get her paint on straight.

Russell Warren leaves numerous offices to be distributed equally among the Freshmen and Sophomores.

Thomasine Slabaugh and Rachael Pancost leave their Trig. books to Dorothy Rasp and Mary Jane Grover, for the purpose of helping them trig themselves up in a learned manner.

Ruth Shultz leaves all her hand-made, hand-painted history maps to Eunice Borger, a worthy scholar.

Dale Jordan leaves a slightly-used Civics book to Warpy Ball.

Ed Morgan leaves for the benefit of all underclassmen, an essay on "How to Chew Gum."

Hollis Grover leaves her overgrown violin to Marjory Heeman.

Bill Hollar and Carlton Miller leave positions on the football team to Germany Shults and Doc Ellis.

Thus finishes our last will and testament, signed and sealed this 4th day of February, in the year of our Lord, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

Signed: JUNE CLASS OF '29.

June Prophecy

ON THE BRIGHT, sunshiny, stormy morning of Friday, June 13, 1959, the class spirit of 1929 set forth on a transcontinental bicycle derby, competing with many thousand other rivals (including Goshen). The riders, representing the June class of 1929 were: Lieut. Truman C. Yoder and Lieut. Ralph C. Stover. Overcoming our great handicap of being the 70th rider off, we were in the lead at Dunlap. Arriving at Goshen, the notable orator, Robert Ludwig, proprietor of the Goshen popcorn and peanut stand, greeted us with a sack of popcorn. We continued on to Toledo where we were stopped at a grade crossing by Richard Johnson, the crossing watchman of the past 30 years. He asked us to have chow with him, and, being so far in the lead, we decided to accept his invitation. Arriving at his home we found Mrs. Johnson, the chief cook and bottle washer, to be none other than our old friend, Ruth Landis. The next morning we started early for Pittsburg, as a hard deep ride was ahead of us. We arrived at Pittsburg late at night and, as we were very tired, we bunked at the Lopalone Hotel. We were greatly surprised to find Frank Laidlaw the house detective.

After a restless night of sleep we started for the petite town of New York. Entering the town we saw a large mob on one of the side streets of the Jewish section. Here we found Harry Rosenburg having one of his weekly bankrupt sales. Harry was very glad to see us and directed us to the Cheapson Hotel. We were his guests that night at a Broadway Night Club where Betty LaGro and Wilbur Gray were starring in "Hotsie Totsie."

We were off bright and early next morning for Washington, D. C., where we called on the President, but as he was on his vacation in Hobunk, Utah, we had an interview with his private secretary, Rachael Pancost, who directed us to take road 113 to Atlanta, Georgia.

Arriving at Atlanta we saw Joe Hoke selling the Atlanta Prevaricator. We rode over to his stand and purchased a newspaper. Joe directed us to the Sleepless Hotel, where we were shown to our rooms by the head bellhop, T. J. Charlesworth.

On the front page of the Atlanta Prevaricator was a picture of Ted Blessing, the old bass player of the E. H. S. Band. An article under the picture told of his good fortune of investing his few pennies in the Drywell Oil Co., which had now made him a millionaire.

After spending the week end with Ted we started for New Orleans. On our way we overtook Harold Johnson who was entered in a cross-country bunion race. We picked him up and took him into New Orleans. We then continued on to San Antonio, Texas, where we stayed at the Army Post. We found Paul Kliforth doing his daily K. P. and Charles Robbins chief grease monkey of the United States Air Corps. After many days of climbing mountains, etc., we reached Hollywood. We saw Roy Yoder and Alice Cauffman in their latest screen hit, "Why Men Go Crazy," in two reels.

Southern California and Notre Dame were to play their championship game the next day so we decided to reach San Francisco in time to see the game. As the S. C. team raced out on the field we recognized Bill Hollar and Hub Gander as water boy and bench warmer—tasks which they performed exceptionally well.

After the game we started for Yellowstone National Park. There we met our friends Russell Warren and Hollis Grover working on their new discovery, "Why Snakes Have Hips."

After spending a day in the zoo we started for St. Louis but before reaching St. Louis we were halted by a heavy storm and were compelled to stay at a ranch where Don King and his wife, Joyce Hagerty had been living ever since they lost their money.

The next day we made St. Louis and dined at the M&S "Sloppy Bowl." The head waitress was Maxine Sayre and the chief cook was Virginia Mathias, who served us a red hot supper of succotash. As we were very sick from the supper we decided to stay another day but we received a telegram from our manager, Buck Jones, that our competitors were in Springfield, Ill., so we started immediately for Chicago.

After a light lunch of four chicken sandwiches, five cups of coffee, three plates of wheat cakes and six pies a la modes, we felt like ourselves again and started for Elkhart.

After falling off our two seated bicycle, six or eight times we broke the tape first in Elkhart. Following some 157 hours, 3 minutes and 29½ seconds of unconsciousness we awoke and found ourselves in the Elkhart General Hospital with two special nurses, Dorothy Markel and Elizabeth Young.

Thus we completed the cross-country race and received our due reward. In spite of the fact that we had met a number of old classmates, we were fed up, and decided that in the future we would travel via aeroplane instead of bicycle.

The IA class reorganized, last fall, with Miss Weng continuing as sponsor. The Junior rings were of a very new and modern design. The Juniors are very proud of them and they are to be seen everywhere.

Last semester the class had a joint party with the other section of the Juniors. The class also sponsored a dance in the gym, in November.

The IA's and IIB's entertained the Seniors at the Annual Junior-Senior Prom, in May, and presented "Captain Applejack" in the auditorium, April 19.

The June Class of 1930 was reorganized in September under the sponsorship of Miss Cunningham.

A very attractive emblem for class rings and pins was chosen by a committee which consisted of members from both the January and June Classes.

In November a party was held in the gym, and in May another one was held in the Little Theatre.

"Captain Applejack," the Junior Class Play, was presented April 19, in the auditorium, under the direction of Miss Margaret Wilson.

The Seniors of '29 were entertained by the 2B's and 1A's at the Junior-Senior Prom, which consisted of a dinner and a dance, and which was held in the latter part of May.

Two parties and an Assembly program have been the chief social functions carried on by the 2C class this year.

A Halloween party held in the gym October 29, 1928, was of interest and everybody had a rousing good time.

Another social gathering was held in the Little Theater February 4, where old games were revived, and two short but clever plays were presented.

Th 2C's red letter day, however, was February 27, 1929, when they gave the program for assembly. The program consisted of a tableau and two plays. One play was "An old-time School" and the other was "Hash in Two Hacks." The program was very enthusiastically received by the entire student body.

January Class of '33

One of the many traditions of E. H. S. is the one regarding the Freshman Class. Freshmen are not supposed to organize until their second semester in school.

The January Class of '33 has remained true to tradition. As yet they have not organized, but are eagerly awaiting the time when they, too, may take an active part in the affairs of the school.

The school expects this class to do many worth-while things in organizations and in their class. However, at present they are merely marking time until next semester, when they will have the privilege of organizing and joining with the other classes in promoting school activities.

CAPTAIN DALE HOFFMAN

The 1928 Football Season

STARTING the season late did not detain the Blue and White Avalanchers from tying for third place with Hammond High School in the Big Fifteen, Northern Indiana High School football league, with two losses and one tie balancing seven victories. Elkhart High School was recognized as one of a group of seven contenders for the State Title.

Dale Hoffman, who completed his football career in E. H. S. this season, shared additional individual honors by placing on the All-State first team picked by Dick Miller for the "Indianapolis News." Besides this he was honored on all the other first teams picked by leading sport writers. In the three years that he has played football in the state of Indiana he has been placed on a "mythical eleven" each year. Besides being a large asset to the Boonemen, he has been feared by every team he has played against during his High School career. Matthew Ronzone was placed on Miller's third team at the fullback post, from which he made himself the high-point scorer of the squad.

Kelley, Miller, Whitehead and Sayger were also given various honorable mentions in the state. Carroll Ball, a veteran football player did excellent work, and Groll Beaver, an up-and-coming player, is expected to lend strong support to the Boonemen next season.

Elkhart and LaPorte

"A Satisfactory Lid-Opener"

M. Ball

Playing against a team that had competed in three previous encounters, the Elkhart Blue and White Avalanchers trounced the LaPorte Slicers, 20-0, in the first game of the season.

After playing more or less ragged football for the first three minutes of the game, the avalanche started to work by forming perfect interference, giving Carroll Ball the opportunity to run 96 yards for the initial score of the year. The other scores were made by a long run by Hoffman, and shorter six-yard plunges through the line.

Elkhart and Fort Wayne

"Keep it up, Elkhart!"

Taking on the disguise of a Grey Avalanche, the Elkhart Boonemen proved just as powerful as before in defeating an heretofore unbeaten-and-unscored-on eleven from Fort Wayne, in the opening game of the home season, by a 40-6 score.

The Centralites scored the first touchdown when they intercepted a pass, and by another play fought their way across the goal line. After this incident the Elkhart backfield and forward wall got together, repeatedly crossed under the Fort Wayne goal posts and blocked every attempt to score. Hoffman, Ronzone, and Sayger accounted for the scoring.

Elkhart and Plymouth

"On Nearly Even Terms"

This was one of the "almost but not quite" games. The Blue Avalanche, back to their own colors, relieved the fans of the "not quite" in the fourth quarter, where a bullet-pass from Hoffman to Ball brought the sphere to the 10-yard line. Here the line opened to allow Ronzone to enter into the enemies' secondary defense from whence he traveled unaided to the goal for the valuable lone tally, making the final score 6-0. Elkhart had two or three other chances to score, but they were not quite able to convert them into touchdowns.

D. Sayger

Elkhart and Mishawaka

"Eventually—Why Not Now?"

After having to wait for three years to convince the Maroon team from Mishawaka that we could beat them, the Elkhart Blue and White Avalanche decided that there was no time like the present. Before one of the largest crowds that has ever graced the Rice Field Bowl, the Boonemen romped over the Maroons, showing vast superiority in every department of the game. The final score was 25-0.

Elkhart and Kokomo

"A La Victory!"

Scene: Ex Po Park, Kokomo, Indiana—Any time in the afternoon. Line-smashes a la Ronzone, off-tackle-out backs a la Ball, end runs a la Hoffman, and long passes into the willing arms of Bus Sayger, aided the Boonemen to leave a strong downstate team from Kokomo at the small end of a 24 to 6 score after a hurried last-half rally on the part of the Elkhart boys.

Being held to a 6 to 0 lead the first period the Avalanchers started a rally with Hoffman and Ronzone sharing honors with two a-piece. This was Elkhart's fifth victory and tied them for first place in the Big Fifteen league with two other squads from South Bend and Froebel of Gary.

Elkhart and Goshen

"A 50-50 Proposition"

The Goshen Redskins saw no reason why the Elkhart Avalanches should win this game any more than they. Both teams scored a touchdown, but neither were able to score the point after touchdown. The two ancient rivals held each other to a 12-12 deadlock.

Hoffman took on the position of master of ceremonies for the Blue and White, and contributed two long, valuable 40-yard runs and two absolutely necessary touchdowns, while Kelley played a remarkable game at center.

Elkhart and Whiting

"Less Oil—More Speed"

Still in a daze from their previous set-back, the Avalanchers did not seem very impressive in their victory over the Whiting Oilers from the Calumet district. However, they kept up their undefeated stride, winning by a 13-6 score and showing well in spots.

One touchdown was scored on a pass to Sayger; the other was scored by Ronzone, who zigzagged through a pretty broken field. Late in the last quarter the Blue and White had a third chance to score, but was repelled by Whiting two inches from the goal line.

"THE SANDBURS"

Elkhart and Michigan City

"Muddy Water"

Mud, rain, and slush could not keep the Avalanche down. They won in spite of it, by a 6-0 score. Elkhart, making its seventh straight win, fought one of the best games of the year.

Ronzone made the lone tally this time. He was forced to take the ball from the Elkhart 19-yard line eight successive times through the Gillman center of pivot for the score. Whitehead, Gander and Miller displayed commendable work on the line, while Hoffman showed himself to be an excellent half-back in handling a slippery ball.

Elkhart and South Bend

"One Down and One to Go"

The game that everyone had been fearing all season came at a point where the Bears and the Avalanchers had to play for second place supremacy of the Big Fifteen league. Lady Luck favored South Bend, who were victors by a 3-0 score, in a tough game played on Cartier Field, Notre Dame.

Neither team was able to take advantage of its chance in getting within reasonable distance of the goal, but after a series of breaks the Bears took a center position five yards from the Elkhart goal and planted the ball between the posts for the final score.

Elkhart and Mooseheart

"Thus Closeth the Elkhart 1928 Football Season"

For the second time in the same number of years Elkhart played Mooseheart on Rice Field on a Thanksgiving Day. As a repetition of last year's game the Seegletsmen did most of their scoring in the first part of the game, winning by an 18-7 margin. Ronzone, for the third time of his 1928 football career scored the only touchdown; this time on five successive tries through the Mooseheart line. Because of an injury to Captain Hoffman's foot, Ronzone kicked the extra point.

Season's Summary

Facing the handicap of assembling a squad of players almost to a man untried in varsity competition, Coach Bratton was compelled to place a team on the basketball courts this year, which experienced one of the most dismal records ever suffered by an Elkhart cage five.

The Blue, from the start of the season to the South Bend game along in the middle of the schedule, was forced to play without a single regular from last year, and an almost unending string of defeats stared them in the face as they went into their thirteenth game of the season with Valparaiso.

The Valpo quintet, while reposing near the top in the N. I. H. S. C., in vain tried to stop the desperate attack of the blazers, smarting under the stigma of twelve straight losses. The Blue won by a comfortable margin for one of the five victories during the entire season.

The only other two bright spots in the Blazers' schedule were at Kendallville, where they beat the Red five rather easily, and a thrill-producing contest with their old rivals,

G. Beaver

F. Parmater

D. Hoffman

C. Miller

the Mishawaka Cavemen, won in the last few seconds of play by "one-basket" Rickey.

While the Blazers had increased their store of basketball knowledge by quite a good deal as sectional tournament time approached, the state-ward bound Goshen Redskins, led by Bunk Williams, pushed them over rather easily in the final game of the tournament.

The addition of Hoffman to the squad during the forepart of the season and the fact that Waddie Peterson, a nice center from last year, was made eligible at the beginning of the second semester, were perhaps the only two reasons that the Blue five finished the season with any games at all on the credit side of the ledger.

However, with so many men of varsity caliber back for next year, Elkhart fans may expect to see a quintet on the basketball court which will have ample possibilities of upholding Elkhart's high athletic traditions, and finish considerably better than a tie for next to last place in the Northern Indiana Conference.

Track Season of 1928

Elkhart Trackmen Place at Ann Arbor

MARCH 17, 1928

Elkhart placed thirteenth at the annual indoor carnival which was held at Ann Arbor, Michigan, Saturday, March 17. The meet was won by Northwestern of Detroit.

Gordon Johnson, Elkhart all-round star, placed third after winning his trial on Friday, March 16th.

Elkhart Trackmen Place Third at Notre Dame

MARCH 30, 1928

Froebel of Gary first, Kokomo second, Elkhart third, and South Bend fourth, was the result of the first annual indoor track meet, held at Notre Dame on Saturday, March 30.

South Bend Invitational Meet

The result of this meet was very unexpected. South Bend came first with 31¼ points and Froebel of Gary placed second. However, the Elkhart half mile relay team, composed of Bock, Ferro, Ball and Truex placed first.

Other schools entered in the meet were: Hammond, Valparaiso, Benton Harbor, and Goshen.

Goshen Relays

After the South Bend meet, Elkhart made a splendid comeback and placed in the Goshen relays with 19½ points. The quarter and half mile relay teams were winners in the meet.

The following schools entered and finished in this position: Elkhart, Hammond, Emerson, Froebel, South Bend and Horace Mann (tied for fifth place), Auburn, Goshen, Bluffton, Mishawaka, Nappanee and Decatur.

MILE RELAY TEAM
K. Smith, R. Hostetler, F. Miller, Z. Staley.

Elkhart's 1928 track season owed much of their success to the consistent winning of the mile and half-mile relay teams. In the South Bend Invitational Meet the half mile relay team placed first, and at the Goshen Relays, the quarter and half-mile relay teams were both winners. At the N. I. H. S. C. Track Meet at Rice Field the half mile relay team again copped first place and at the Sectional Meet the Elkhart score was largely due to the efforts of these relay teams.

HALF MILE RELAY TEAM
K. Truex, M. Bock, J. Ferro, G. Johnson, C. Ball.

N. I. H. S. C. Track Meet

Froebel of Gary, one of the strongest track teams in the State, set a killing pace and took first in the N. I. H. S. C. meet at Rice Field, Elkhart, Indiana. The track was in perfect condition and every record of the conference was either tied or broken.

Nugnis of Froebel was the high point man of the meet with a first in the 100, 220, and 440.

The Elkhart half mile relay team again took first in their heat. South Bend in another heat took first in the same of 1.35 7/10 seconds.

Elkhart, the winner of the Goshen Relays the preceding Saturday, was able to win but fifth place.

Sectional Meet

Elkhart's well balanced track team scored an easy victory over the other teams in Northeastern Indiana, at the Sectional meet which was held at Rice Field. The Boonemen scored 39 2/3 points. The next highest team was Auburn, which totaled 19 points.

Elkhart qualified eight men for the State meet. The eight men were: G. Johnson, C. Ball, Bock, Ferro, M. Chaffee, Truex, H. Johnson and H. Adeline.

The Elkhart High School crack half-mile relay team kept up its unbroken record when it won the State relay in a very easy manner.

K. Truex G. Johnson

GORDON JOHNSON

Gordon Johnson, high point man in track events, made a record of 36 points, for the 1928 season. He was State Champion in the 440 event in 1928, and he has been a consistent and outstanding player ever since his entry into High School Athletics, in 1924. Gordon was graduated from E. H. S. in 1928, and is now entered in the University of Michigan.

KENNETH TRUEX

The high point man in field events in the 1928 season was Kenneth Truex, who amassed a total of 13 points. It was not until his Senior year that he became prominent in High School Athletics, and then he confined his activities mostly to Track and field events. He was graduated from Elkhart High School in 1928 and is now studying at Indiana University.

THE WRESTLING TEAM

The 1929 Wrestling Team

The fine record established by E. H. S. in its three years of competition in the State wrestling is largely due to the untiring efforts of Coach C. C. Boone.

Elkhart High School wrestling squad ended a successful season at Bloomington where they placed fourth in the State Contest. Previous to this the Blue Matmen were second in the third Annual N. I. H. S. C., at Michigan City.

Bill Hollar, last year's all-conference man, annexed a third, placing Elkhart fourth in the I. S. A. A. wrestling meet, with 14 points to the credit of E. H. S.

Elkhart and Michigan City

The first meet of the year was held at Michigan City, March 5, where Elkhart won an easy margin of 25 to 18. From last year's wrestlers Wright S. Blessing, and Shultz won pins over their opponents. Myron Chaffee, in his first year of varsity competition, also won by a pin-fall.

Elkhart and South Bend

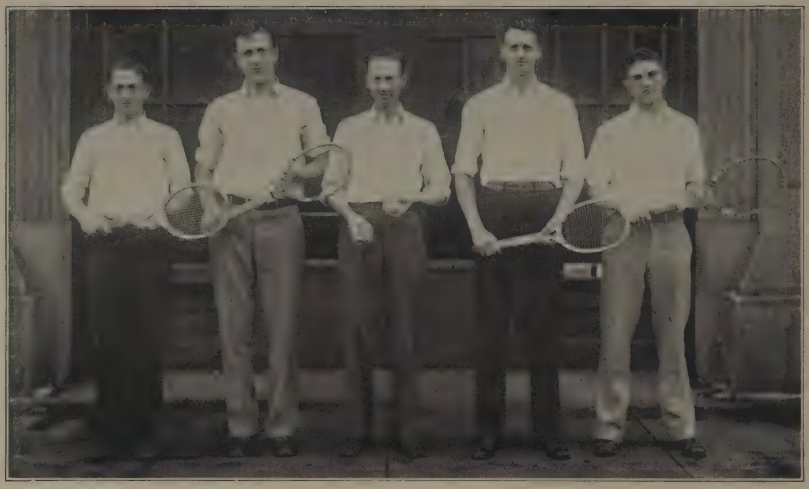
In the second meet of the season, the Blue matmen met defeat at the hands of the strong South Bend grapplers in a close battle of 27 to 13. Elkhart winners were Eddie Wright, Bill Hollar, and Carlin Miller.

Laporte and Elkhart

The next meet gave the Boonemen the second defeat on their schedule when they met the Laporte squad, at Laporte, and were barely beaten by a score of 19½ to 15½. The point gatherers for Elkhart were Wright and Shultz.

Elkhart and South Bend

In the last contest on their schedule the Boone matmen were overpowered by a revamped South Bend squad, by a margin of 29 to 3. Miller, in the heavyweight class, score the total Elkhart alotment by a cose time-advantage decision.



L. J. Charlesworth, Stocker, T. H. Miller, Crawford, Burkhart

Tennis 1928

Under the direction of Coach Miller the 1928 tennis year was a great success, as the spring team won four out of six contests, and the fall aggregation made an even break. In the spring the Elkhart team was defeated twice, with both defeats coming from South Bend, who was the winner of the N. I. H. S. C. In the fall the Blue and White squad split two matches with the Nappanee outfit.

Elkhart was represented in the annual N. I. H. S. C. meet with Crawford fighting his way to the finals, and losing to a South Bend ace, and Bud Burkhart getting into the semi-finals and losing to the same man that defeated Crawford in the finals.

The name implies the work done by these busy workers, the ever-ready supporters of E.H.S. Athletics.

At the first meeting of the year, twenty-four new members were added to the club.

On October 19th, at a pep meeting held in the gym, a stunt was put on in the form of a prize fight predicting the outcome of the Mishawaka-Elkhart game.

February 5th, twelve more members were voted into the club. Most of these members are underclassmen, and are very active in the club work.

The annual party for the E. H. S. athletics in the gym this year was no exception to the rule that "Rah Rah parties are the most interesting and entertaining parties of the year."

The Fighting Fifty

President ..... William Barger
Secretary ..... Donald Ball
Treasurer ..... Dale Longacre

Sponsor: Mr. Peterson

The Fighting Fifty, with Mr. Peterson at its head, began an active season by selling refreshments at the Whiting football game.

The Pep session for the Goshen-Elkhart football game was sponsored by the club. This novel entertainment was in charge of a Hindu-Mystic (Jim Killer) who, blindfolded, pointed out various students and teachers of the audience and finished by predicting the score of the game. Dale Longacre acted as the Mystic's assistant and Donald Ball was Master of Ceremonies.

At the Sectional Tourney twelve of the members acted as ushers wearing royal blue caps trimmed with white braid.

The Forum is the organization which is responsible for the support of the E. H. S. debate teams and for the Public Speaking contests. As the members of the club are not taxed with dues, money is obtained from candy sales in the halls and at games, and by movies in the Auditorium.

During the last year the Forum had the concession at two basketball games, two candy sales and had charge of selling the programs at the sectional Tournament.

AFFIRMATIVE TEAM	NEGATIVE TEAM
Charles Dickerhoff	Tom Proctor
Virginia Adams	Hollis Grover
Robert Ludwig (Capt.)	Wilbur Gray

Sponsor—Mr. Bryngleson

Under the coaching of Mr. Bryngleson the Debate teams this year upheld Elkhart High School very successfully, winning seven out of eight debates. The Affirmative team won four and lost none of their debates, and the Negative won three and lost one, the defeat being at the hands of South Bend.

This was the first year for the Indiana Debating League and although E. H. S. did not win in this district, as South Bend was undefeated, decisions were gained over Warsaw, Goshen, Leiters Ford, and Columbia City.

Robert Ludwig, Captain, was the only veteran on the squad. Two members, Tom Proctor and Virginia Adams, will be left for next year's team, the others are graduating.

Purpose: "To face life squarely."

Slogan: "To find and give the best."

The E. H. S. Girl Reserves club is a group of a hundred and six members who by working and playing together are trying to make real their slogan and purpose in their own lives and in the lives of others. Through their activities they are discovering the joy of creative living as expressed in the ideals for which the Young Women's Christian Association stands.

The year's program includes a Setting-Up Conference in the fall, a G. R.-Hi-Y party, Vodvil, Mother-Daughter supper, World Fellowship Vespers, a Tri-City conference besides regular club suppers every two weeks.

The Freshman club has its own officers and meets every Thursday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. and has special events throughout the year. Together with all other Girl Reserves they are seeking "to face life squarely and to find and give the best."

Aside from the noon luncheons at the Y. M. C. A. the club has held several social functions such as Halloween parties, an April Fool Party, Hikes and Banquets.

Members assisted in giving food to make up baskets at Christmas to send to needy families.

Each boy pledges himself to help "Create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community the highest standards of Christian character."

The Senior Hi-Y Club forged ahead this year more than ever before in extending the Hi-Y purpose throughout the school and community. The club has entertained the Girl Reserves at a Halloween Party, and has held a Father and Son banquet; baskets were sent to the needy at Christmas, and the club helped to sponsor the County Older Boys' and Girls' Conference held in March.

Co-operating with the Girls' Reserves, the play "Nothing but the Truth" was presented at E. H. S. Auditorium on March 22nd.

Noon luncheons, discussion group meetings, participation in the State "Y" Bible Study Contest, the organization of the County Hi-Y Council, and the establishment of a Freshman Hi-Y Club have been some of the high lights of this year. With Mr. Harvey as their leader the club looks forward to bigger and better activities next year.

With Miss Cunningham as its sponsor Le Circle Francais re-organized last year, forming a new constitution.

Students having had one year and a half of French with an average of at least G are eligible. Meetings are held after school each second and fourth Tuesday of the month. Song books have been made for future use of the Club.

Several French plays have been given in the Auditorium by the club, and on January 19 the club had charge of the candy sale at the Elkhart-Nappanee game.

This year the Club selected as emblems a small gold pin with a miniature Eiffel Tower and a typical French Fleu-de-lis.

Coached by Miss Margaret Wilson

"Charm" portrays the life of an American family in a small town. In attempting to prevent the daughter, Ida May, from going to New York to lead her own life, her parents and Joe, her high school sweetheart, strictly follow the rules of a "Book of Charm." The results of this are disastrous to Mr. Harper's point of view, but through a series of humorous and almost tragic incidents, Ida May, the small town heroine, realizes that after all her ideal is Joe, the small town hero and that the city holds no future for her.

Johnny Jason	Donald Ball

"Captain Applejack," an Arabian Knight's adventure in three acts, was chosen by the Junior class, and successfully presented on April 19th, 1929.

Poppy Faire is in love with Ambrose Applejohn, her guardian, a very conventional and respectable Englishman.

Ambrose wishes to seek adventure so he engages his friend, Johnny Jason to sell his house for him. Before Johnny has time to sell the home, adventure comes to Ambrose without his seeking it.

Anna Valeska and her associates, who are spies, get in the home and frighten Ambrose. They are seeking a parchment, said to be hidden in the house, and on which are directions telling where a treasure is located. Ambrose outwits the pirates, finds the treasure himself, and becomes happily married to Poppy.

King Dorum	Harold Cox
Toro	Francis Schumacher
Ardita	Dorothy Markel
Queen Maldora	Mary Ellstrom
Fairy Godmother	Frances Horton
Peter Simpul	Willene Pancost

A fantasy in which a fairy Godmother, with the help of a cabbage, straightens out the differences between the royal families of King Dorum and King Corum, thus aiding Prince Toro to marry Princess Ardita.

"The Marriage Proposal"

CAST

Natalie Stephanova	Anna Rose
Ivan Vassillitch	Charles Dickerhoff
Stephana Stephanawich	Maurice Babcock

A Russian play in which the young man who has come to propose gets into a heated argument with the daughter of the house, who does not know that he intended to propose. He leaves, but she calls him back, and the scene ends with the engagement of the "man with the palpitations of the heart" to the young Russian girl, and another argument.

"A Fool of a Man"

CAST

Mr. Horace Bundy ..... Harold Cox
Mrs. Horace Bundy ..... Mary Ellstrom
Eddie ..... Francis Schumacher

Mr. Bundy just throws away his greatest opportunity, that of partner in the firm of Dodson, Wright, and Bundy, because he thinks he can not have that little garden he wanted; and his wife calls him a "fool of a man." Finally they agree that they are old, and happy enough now by their fireside.

The Christmas Entertainment

On December the nineteenth, the Dramatics Club, with the assistance of the Music Department, gave the Annual Christmas Program for the public. The auditorium was illuminated only by candles and during the silhouette, carols were sung by members of Mr. Cheney's classes. A play, "Mimi Lights the Candle," was given to close the program.

The Operetta

The gala event for the year for the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs is the annual operetta. This year "Purple Towers" was chosen—a story of haunted houses, lost contracts, and mistaken identities with many humorous lines and tuneful harmonies which made it a delightful entertainment.

Eleanor Bowser as "Mary," Maurice Babcock as "Snowball," Margaret Oliver as "Urseba Applegate," Thane McDonald as "Hank Huckleberry," Ralph Thorpe as "Phil Bradley," Ruth Ivins as "Tillie," and Ray Stamets as "Red Nichols," carried their speaking and singing parts most commendably.

The E. H. S. Orchestra

BERNICE ZORNIGER, Concert Mistress

The E. H. S. Orchestra, although devoting much time toward the development of a symphonic organization, has been very much in evidence at assembly programs, class plays, graduation exercises, at Christmas programs, and at all special meetings.

One of the outstanding events of the year was the annual Northern Indiana District Orchestra Meet at South Bend, on October 12 and 13, to which ten players were sent. Four members merited first chair assignments, and the others received complimentary places.

The Orchestra also entered the Northern Indiana District Contest, April 26, at Gary.

Individual appreciation and familiarity with great compositions, and work as a unit, rather than a group of solo players, have been the aims of Mr. Cheney, the director, and the year has been most successful.

The E.H.S. Band

There is no organization in a high school more instrumental in keeping up a lively spirit among the students than a good band, and this year E. H. S. has had one of the best in the state.

At every important football and basketball game the band has appeared with their rousing numbers and snappy drilling to keep up the pep of the spectators.

But this was not the extent of their industry and aspirations; they have worked out some beautiful standard numbers, and the splendid results of this constant practice were shown in the joint benefit concert given with the Lions Club last November.

Another important time for these musicians was the Sousa Contest at Notre Dame. The E. H. S. Band brought home the cup, and experienced the thrill of playing under the baton of John Philip Sousa.

Later in the year, they entered the annual N. I. D. contest at Gary, and appeared in new uniforms at a Spring Concert, April 12.

Clarinets: Wallene Derby, Richard Wiley, Robert Dreves, Wayne Helser, Howard DeWater, Jane Kerlin, Wilma Rice, Marjorie Sears, Hazel Mitchell, Dale Suster, Hildred Chester, William Stewart, Floyd Ort, Iva Sherbume, Thelma Price, Alverda Meyers, Irene Kenney, Floy Denman. Bass Clarinet: Donald Fetters. Alto Clarinet: Stanley Emmert. Bassoon: Wayne Dalrymple, Marion Helm. Cornets: Edison Nafzger, Charles Dickerhoff, Harry Kantz, Eldred Heeter, Robert Fribley, Robert Bixby, Ralph Stover, Robert Foltz, Ralph Sprogue, Fern Deal, John Clear, Jean Herbster, Gerald McHatten, George Borneman, Stanley Blessing. Oboe: Raymond Mechling. Flutes and Piccolo: Alvin Borders, Alma Noles, Stanley Moore, Miriam Brusman, James Oliver. Horns: Robert Bussard, Francis Lamb, Elvah Clark, Martha Kollat. Trombones: Robert Stewart, Virgil Printy, James Bossard, Martha Proseus, Ruth Ivins, Phyllis Hurst, Helen Payne, William Scoville. Baritones: Gerald Rahn, Charles Greenleaf, Roy Pennybacker. Basses: Truman Yoder, Ted Blessing, Louis Hire, Edward Sinning. Saxaphones: Jeanette Rubin, James Fetters, Howard Hummance, Dorothy Rhodes, Ralph Morningstar, Maxine Davis, Rose Garen, LaVere Truex, Zirn Staley. Drums: Horace Hogendobler, Paul Rowe, Irving Horwich, Groll Beaver. Tympani: Marvin Burnstein.

The purpose of the Art Club is to promote greater appreciation of art in every-day life: domestic, and civic, together with the art of the old masters and modern art. This is promoted in the club by means of lectures, given by the students, teachers and persons of distinction who are connected with various phases of art life. Other ways in which the art classes endeavor to study these art phases are by trips to museums and exhibitions, the study of beautiful homes, and inspection of furniture factories.

Library research work of the old masters is one of the main features of the classes. Reports on the lives of important artists, such as J. S. Sargent, Guido Reni, Winslow Holmer and John N. Alexander have been given.

How I Became Successful

Letters from Prominent Seniors published for the sake of Underclassmen

Imagine my embarrassment! The wallflower at the party. No one would dance with me or talk to me. I was avoided as dull and uninteresting. However, I have at last succeeded in making myself interesting. I have conscientiously attended every picture in which Greta Garbo appeared. I watched her every movement and imitated her before my mirror. Satisfied with the results I attempted to charm my friends and to my surprise as well as theirs, I am popular. Movies made me what I am today. ANNA BELLE WYATT.

They laughed when I went into the Restaurant—for I could not speak French. All I could do was to blurt out miserably—"ham and eggs on one." That very night I read an advertisement about the Halexander Amilton Institute. After only two weeks of study I can speak French like a native, read the left side of the menu and feel that I have the respect of all the waiters. CARROLL BALL

I attribute my phenomenal beauty and success to the constant exercise and reading of Whiz-Bang. The jokes made my mind what it is today and laughing improved my physique. Of course many of my attainments are due to my native ability—a kind that few people have. FRANCIS LAMB

Of course I am naturally a handsome chap, whose success can be easily understood. But I feel that I owe much of my ability to the constant use of Fleischman's Yeast. Daily use of this product has given me that youthful vim, vigor and vitality which makes them all fall for me. T. J. CHARLESWORTH.

For years I despaired of ever attaining the shining goal. One day while indifferently perusing a copy of the American Magazine I came upon an article which showed how to attain success. Immediately I subscribed to the magazine—and look at me today—I am president of my class, an ardent member of Hi-Y, the Fighting Fifty can't get along without me, and I am invaluable to the Annual. Follow my advice—drink three bottles of S.S.S. and subscribe to the American. RUSSELL WARREN.

I got my start by reading Dr. Eliot's Five Foot Shelf. Before I read this I could not talk on any subject. After a month's course in fifteen minutes a day, I was able to talk lengthily and fluently on any topic at all, or about nothing at all. Using this—I talked my way into the presidency of the Rah! Rah's!, to oratorical victories, into the editorship of the Annual—in short, into success. MAGGIE OLIVER.

Have dignity and grace. Youthful, individual, they are subtly adopting a more elegant manner to suit a new age. The swiftness of the machine age has become a matter of course to be used for comfort and convenience, while we adopt a more leisurely pace for our social life and take the time to look about us for beauty and grace. And the new fashions are reflecting this attitude in softened lines.

A Good Safe Place To Bank Since 1872

The St. Joseph Valley Bank welcomes the accounts of young men and women who are just starting out in the business world and who are ambitious to forge ahead.

To these earnest young people, the advice and counsel of our officers, in the solution of their business and financial problems, will be an important event in their business or professional success.

Our officers are seated in plain view of all who come here. They are never too busy to see you—and talk with you. They want you—above all else—to feel at ease and at home.

The St. Joe is a big, strong democratic bank where, we feel confident, you will find it a real pleasure to do business.

"Going around with women a lot keeps you young."

"How come?"

"I started going around with them four years ago when I was a freshman, and I'm still a freshman."

RACKETS REPAIRED
AND RESTRUNG

"Hey," cried the brand-new bridegroom in the breakfast room of the hotel, "Can we have a spoon here?"

"Go ahead, for all I care," said the waiter.

A country youth was making his first visit to the metropolis. When he came out of the union station he beheld a long line of uniformed men, perched at the top of carriages, raise their whips and cry "Hansom! Hansom!"

"Spotted for my good looks wherever I go," he thought.

Jinks M.—"Mamma wants to know when the accommodations leave for South Bend?"

Ticket Agent—"Two to 2:00 and 2:02."

Jinks M.—"Are you the whistle?"

You like the art style of this Annual?

Yes?

So do we.

Adaptability to the sweep of progress is a sure sign of virility, in age or youth.

The First National is ever abreast with the times in service, methods and practices---though it cherishes and upholds the ideals that made it a community balance - wheel, a decade before Elkhart High School was organized.

Surprise Them One Day Real Soon

KEEP it a secret. Don't tell a soul. Practice on the sly, and in three weeks give them the big surprise with your Buescher True Tone Saxophone.

From then on, Boy! Will you be popular! From then on, fun, good times, the cordial favor of approving friends, the glory of the limelight, all yours.

You Can Do It SO EASY!

This is the one instrument you know you can learn to play. If you can whistle a tune you can't fail with a Buescher. You can learn to play quickly, with very little effort.

Join the Home Town Band

With the aid of 3 lessons given on request with each new Buescher, many learn scales the first hour and play tunes the first week. You can teach yourself, and in 90 days join the Band, or play with an orchestra at good pay.

Only Buescher Assures Success

But only with a Buescher is this rapid progress assured. You don't have to fuss and favor for certain notes. Just open the key and blow normally. Every tone is always full, clear and true.

Six Days' Trial, Easy Terms

Take any Buescher Instrument home for six days' trial. If you like it, pay a little each month. Send postal for beautiful catalog and the details of this liberal plan. There will never be a better time to start. Write today.

AN expression of gratitude, it seems to us, is a fitting close to this book. The 1929 Pennant Annual Staff is most grateful to all who assisted in compiling this book: to the Jahn and Ollier Engraving Co., and to the McClave Printing Co. for their co-operation; to the teachers and pupils who have given us assistance and encouragement, and to the members of the Art Department who have given so largely of their time and ideas, and most of all to our sponsor, Miss Dorothy Kelly, for her constant enthusiasm and guidance.
